

Women's History Month

MARCH 2009

Women's Studies Program Lecture Series

Rutgers University, Camden Campus

Women: Blogging the Political

Tuesday, March 3 at 12:20 pm
Armitage Faculty Lounge

Dr. Antoinette Pole
Assistant Professor
Department of Political Science and Law
Montclair State University

How Much Is Enough? Portion Size and Satiation in Young Children

Thursday, March 5 at 1:30 pm
Fine Arts 110

Dr. Jennifer Fisher
Assistant Professor
Department of Public Health
Temple University

What Happened to History in the Seventies? Beyond "The Personal is Political"

Tuesday, March 10 at 4:30 pm
Penn 401

Dr. Lorrin Reed Thomas
Assistant Professor
Department of History
Rutgers University

The "Mothers" of the Pill: Margaret Sanger, Katharine McCormick, and Oral Contraception

Monday, March 23 at 12:10 pm
Armitage Faculty Lounge

Dr. Margaret Marsh
Interim Chancellor and Professor II
Department of History
Rutgers University

A Complex Weave: Women and Identity in Contemporary Art

Thursday, March 26 at 12:20 pm
Armitage Faculty Lounge

Dr. Martin Rosenberg
Professor
Department of Fine Arts
Rutgers University

Understanding Sexual Assault Monday, March 30 at 12:10 pm Armitage Faculty Lounge

Ms. Laura Luciano
Assistant Director of Rutgers' Sexual Assault Services and Crime Victims Assistance

RUTGERS

Camden College of Arts and Sciences