Homework Assignment 10

Given: April 16, 2009

Due: April 23, 2009

This assignment is due by the end of the class on the due date. Unless all problems carry equal weight, the point value of each problem is shown in []. To receive full credit all your answers should be carefully justified. Each solution must be the student's own work. Assistance should be sought or accepted only from the course staff. Any violation of this rule will be dealt with harshly.
