INTERNATIONAL STUDIES SCHOLARSHIP APPLICATION

We invite applications from Honors College Students enrolled in an International Studies class/trip. Applicants should identify the particular class in which they plan to enroll.

In addition to completing the accompanying application form students must:

1. Write a 1-2 page essay describing how you expect your study abroad experience to enhance your education. Your essay will be evaluated according to the following:

- How you hope to benefit from your study abroad experience including the relevance of the study abroad program to your academic, career, and personal goals
- How the qualities you possess are relevant to a successful experience abroad
- How the quality of your communication skills are reflected in your writing abilities
- How you intend to integrate your travel experience when you return home to Rutgers University

2. Submit a copy of your complete transcript (Unofficial version is sufficient).
